

COLE YOUNGER TELLS OF MANAGER'S WOES.

Former Bandit Says Show Life is Harder Work Than Eluding Posses.

TRUE STORY OF WHITE DUEL.

During the Next Month He Will Tour
Missouri Towns Which He Once
Awed as a Desperado.

St. Louis Republic.

Cole Younger, the Missouri bandit of the sixties and the early seventies, who visited The Republic office last night, thinks the duties of a showman, who is compelled to be up at all hours, to contend with puerile managers and to keep peace among the members of his show, is harder work than fighting duels, robbing trains or eluding hosts of Deputy Sheriffs and tireless posses.

Younger is, with Frank James, joint proprietor of a show entitled "the Cole Younger and Frank James Wild West Exhibition." The show gave a performance in East St. Louis last night.

Younger spent the day here, the guest of his cousin, Mrs. Carrie L. Hayes of No. 3137 Lawton avenue. It was his first visit to St. Louis since 1867, when he was here immediately after fighting the famous duel with Captain White in Louisiana.

ST. LOUIS MUCH CHANGED.

Younger talked with interest of the change in "complexion," as he expressed it. In 1867 he stayed at a downtown hotel, and remembers going to a house numbered 2505 west, which was then in the extreme suburbs.

His explanation of the White duel to The Republic, last night, was the first authentic account of the affair that has been given to a newspaper. In speaking of it Younger said:

"In 1864 Price's army was camped in Arkansas. I happened to be there, and one afternoon heard an insulting remark made about a woman, whose name I do not care to mention. I gave the author of the remark 'the lie,' and announced that I would defend the woman's honor. It was then explained to me that the story had been first told by a Captain White. I went after this Captain White; but found that he was no longer in the vicinity, and left a letter for him saying that if I ever saw him the insult should be avenged.

"Three years after that, in 1867, I was at a horse race near Monroe, La., and after the end of the contest, which was an unfair one, declared myself in favor of the man who had been wronged.

"While the argument was going on, a man stepped from the crowd, and applying an epithet to me, remarked that I was only bluffing and would dare do nothing as I had not two or three hundred men at my back.

RECOGNIZES OLD ENEMY.

"I recognized in this man the same Captain White to whom I had written the letter. I challenged him to a duel, which was fought immediately, and in which Captain White was wounded in the right side and arm. After he fell he apologized to me.

"I came immediately to St. Louis, and one of my men told that I had killed three men at a horse race in Louisiana, after throwing a blanket over the head of one of my opponent's horses. That is how the absurd story that was printed not long ago originated."

All of Younger's experiences are told in his book, which has just been published and whose title is "The True Story of Cole Younger, by Himself."

Younger says that from sixty to seventy books are sold in every town his company visits. By the promise to the Minnesota authorities he is restrained from appearing in a show or exhibiting himself for money.

MEETS FORMER FRIENDS.

His company will give an exhibition to-morrow night at Warrenton and the next night at Montgomery. August 22 it will visit Mexico, and the 25th Macon. From there it goes to Kirksville and Brunswick.

In traveling over the country Younger meets scores of persons he once knew intimately. He is expecting an interesting experience when his company shows at Lexington, Mo., on September 7. Younger was in the battle at that place, and was hunted for months in that part of the State, there being a reward for his capture, dead or alive.

His many experiences and the long term in the Stillwater prison seem to have had no evil effects on his health, for he appears to be as strong and healthy as any man of his age.

CHINESE REVOLT BODES DISASTER

Port Arthur Newspaper Urges Russia and England to Come to an Understanding.

Berlin, Aug. 22.—A news agency dispatch received here from Port Arthur says:

"From the different Provinces of China come reports of a rising which threatens to involve the whole country. The semi-official Novkral says:

"The moment has come when, in view of the antagonism of German and British interests, an Anglo-Russian rapprochement is desirable as a counterpoise to the movement in Germany and America, which is crossing the interests of Russia and Great Britain, and to the activity of Japan, which wishes to make the Straits of Korea a yellow Bosphorus."

"At present Russian and British interests nowhere clash. An Anglo-Russian alliance is possible, and it is also necessary in order to protect Europe against the yellow danger."

"The Novkral proceeds to strongly attack the Russian papers, which urge Russia to wind up her affairs in Manchuria and which describe her policy in the far East as a costly blunder."

A dispatch to the Cologne Gazette from St. Petersburg, dated yesterday, says:

"The situation in the far East is becoming acute. Even in Manchuria, the Chinese are assuming an insolent attitude toward the Russians, particularly toward the troops. At one place stones were thrown at the commander of the troops. While all Russians are the objects of insult, a spirit of opposition to the Chinese Government is also manifested."

Grand Army Has Elected General Black Commander.

San Francisco, Aug. 22.—The Grand Army of the Republic to-day selected Boston as the place in which the encampment of 1904 will be held and elected the following officers:

Commander-in-Chief—General John C. Black, of Illinois.

Senior Vice Commander—Colonel C. Mason Keene, of California.

Junior Vice Commander—Colonel Harry C. Kessler, of Montana.

Surgeon-in-Chief—George A. Harmon, of Ohio.

Chaplain-in-Chief—Winfield Scott, of Arizona.

The only contest in the election of officers was over chaplain, for which two ballots were taken. On the first ballot, Bross, of Nebraska, received 288 votes; Scott, of Arizona, 306, and Bradford, of Washington, 35. Bradford withdrew and Scott was elected on the second ballot.

Boston and Denver were the only places named for the next place of meeting. Before the ballot had proceeded far, it became apparent that Denver had no chance, and it was withdrawn, Boston was selected by acclamation.

Why He Advertises.

A prominent merchant of Joplin was recently asked by a curious acquaintance, "Why do you have your advertising in the News-Herald every day?" The answer was, "Just to have people talk about it and notice it as you have done." The next question was, "Does it pay you?" Promptly the merchant replied, "If it did not I would quit it."

That is the proposition pure and simple. A merchant will not carry an expensive account that is useless to him. He must "make both ends meet" any expense which is not justified is very soon discontinued. The successful merchant of to-day advertises for the same reason that he opens his business house every morning to do business. You read the daily papers and you must certainly believe that others read them as closely as you do. If a business man keeps his name in the paper every day you see it and when you need something in that line you will patronize the man who is best known to you—the fellow with his name written there—Joplin News Herald.

Missouri Guard Officer Mysteriously Missing.

Kansas City, Mo., August 22.—Schuyler C. Kelly, lieutenant colonel of the 3d regiment, Missouri national guard, has been mysteriously missing from his home in this city since Wednesday morning. His wife joined a party to-day in a search along the river bottoms for the missing man, but found no trace of him. Kelly is known to have carried a big sum of money. Mr. Kelly was clerk of the police court, and handled $25,000 of the city's money in the course of a year. An investigation of his books shows his accounts to be straight, and it is known that he owes the city nothing.

Mound Items.

Too late for last week's issue.

The late corn is doing fine.

John B. Rice has been hauling corn to Passaic this week at 40 cents per bushel. He says he will wait and see what the new crop will do before he sells any more.

J. W. Packer is still buying hay for a good price.

Mrs. J. N. Sharp and three daughters went to Appleton City last week to visit her mother and sister, Mrs. Bowman.

Frits Chambers and wife went to Blue Mound, Kan., to visit her parents and look at the country.

Bro. Ishmel is having a successful protracted meeting. He says every man must repent and be born again. There has been seven or eight additions to the church.

Mrs. E. F. Boswell and daughter called on Mrs. S. J. Eichler and her sister, Mrs. B. R. Gillespie, who lives in Lafayette county. They have not seen each other for several years.

Mrs. Nettie Pollard, of Independence to see us, and will stay until the first week in September. She says times are good.

Uncle John McAnn, who has been confined to his bed for the past three weeks by a very severe pain over his left eye, is able to be up.

Hackler and Fultz, living on the Lockard farm, have been bailing hay for the past few days.

Mrs. M. A. Harlow has been confined to her bed for the past few weeks on account of old age, but is some better at this time.

Mrs. J. N. Sharp has returned home, and the colonel had a broad smile on his face. He says he won't have to cook his meals any more.

Elmer Clauch and Wm. Hemphill started for Kansas the 18th inst. to look at the country. If they don't like the country, they will go to the Indian Territory. L. E. C.

Negro Kidnappers Caught.

Fort Smith, Ark., Aug. 22.—William Hicks and his wife, the supposed leaders of the band of eight negroes who are accused of kidnapping a white girl of Fort Gibson, I. T., have been captured and lodged in jail here. News has been received of the capture of all the other members of the band. A party of farmers who attempted to rescue the girl yesterday was fired upon by the negroes, and one of their number, a man named Pate, was killed. The Hicks woman says that the girl is her daughter.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

makes childbirth easy by preparing the system for parturition and thus shortening labor. The painful ordeal is robbed of its terrors, and the danger lessened to both mother and child; the time of confinement is shortened, the mother rested, and child fully developed, strong and healthy.

Morning sickness, or nausea arising from pregnancy, is prevented by its use.

As pregnancy advances, the breasts enlarge, become swollen and hard. Long before the child is born, they are preparing for the secretion of milk. It is important that they receive early attention. Mother's Friend softens the skin and facilitates the secretion of Life Fluid. Undeveloped breasts, hard-caked shortly after delivery, are the result of non-treatment, and likely to culminate in Mammary Abscess, from which so many suffer excruciating pain and are left with these organs permanently impaired.

Softness, pliability and expansion are given to the muscles and sinews, thus bringing comfort and causing an easy issue of the child. Try it. Of druggists $1.00. Our book "Motherhood" free. THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., ATLANTA, GA.

From a Stable Boy to Heir.

Omaha, Aug. 22.—Jack Kelley, stable boy, groomed horses yesterday at a salary of $6 a week and slept in a loft at night. This evening he has apartments in the best hotel in town. When he appeared for work at Baumer and Johnson's livery stable this morning, a policeman, acting under instructions of attorneys for the late John Kellar, of Rock Island, Ill., informed him that a legacy of $50,000 awaited his signing papers establishing formal proof of identity. Kellar was a wealthy uncle. Kelley won the esteem of the uncle by enlisting as a volunteer in the First Nebraska regiment in the Spanish-American war. During Philippine campaigns he was twice wounded. The legacy was a surprise, because the nephew had no idea he had the uncle's favor. He plans to go to college and take up a profession.

Watch For a Chill.

However slight at this time of year and in this climate, it is the forerunner of malaria. A disposition to yawn, and an all tired out feeling even comes before the chill. Herbine, by its prompt stimulative action on the liver, drives the malarial germs out of the system, purifies the blood, tones up the system and restores health. 50c at H. L. Tucker's Drug Store.

Sour Lake Oil Fields Afire.

Beaumont, Tex., Aug. 22.—Fire this afternoon destroyed twenty-five derricks in what is known as the Shoestring district in the Sour Lake oil fields. The flames were started by a man throwing a gallon of crude oil in the fire box to start a fire in a boiler. A telephone message from Sour Lake says the flames are now under control. The loss cannot yet be estimated.

Constipated Bowels.

To have good health, the body should be kept in a laxative condition, and the bowels moved at least once a day, so that all the poisonous wastes are expelled daily. Mr. G. L. Edwards, 142 Main St., Wichita, Kansas, writes: "I have used Herbine to regulate the liver and bowels for the past ten years, and found it a reliable remedy." 50c at H. L. Tucker's Drug Store.

Congressman Littauer's defense

reads something like that of a man who was asked to pay for a kettle he had borrowed and broken. "I sent the kettle back. I never borrowed your kettle. The kettle was broken when I got it."—The Commoner.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

The man who is serving time in the Ohio prison for stealing 60 cents will know better next time. He will steal enough to permit him to found a college and then enjoy the reputation of being a philanthropist.—The Commoner.

Reunion of Morgan's Brigade.

Park's Hill, Ky., Aug. 22.—Several hundred survivors of General John H. Morgan's famous Confederate brigade are gathered here to-day in the first reunion in twenty five years. The veterans spent the day in renewing old friendship and telling stories of the raid that shocked the North.

Among the noted men here are Captain Steve Sharp, who has charge of the reunion, Colonel R. C. Morgan, Colonel W. C. P. Breckinridge, of Lexington, General Basil W. Duke, Captain Rotyler, of Pine Grove. Stirring speeches were made to-day by Colonel Breckinridge, General Duke and Judge M. C. Sausley in the large auditorium before a crowd of 2,000.

Every regiment is represented at the reunion and the several veterans have come from other States to mingle with their comrades of forty years. The ages of the veterans present range from 56 to 76 years, Major Tenny, of Lexington, being the oldest man present.

Hot Weather Weakness.

If you feel lagged out, listless and lacking in energy, you are perhaps suffering from the debilitating effects of summer weather. These symptoms indicate that a tonic is needed that will create a healthy appetite, make digestion perfect, regulate the bowels and impart natural activity to the liver. This, Herbine will do; it is a tonic, laxative and restorative. H. J. Freegar, Propr. Grand View Hotel, Cheney, Kan., writes: "I have used Herbine for the last 12 years, and nothing on earth can beat it. It was recommended to me by Dr. Newton, Newton, Kan." 50c at H. L. Tucker's Drug Store.

A Negro a Guest at Newport.

New York, Aug. 22.—Newport will be called upon in a few days to entertain a negro politician of North Carolina. He is not coming to Newport on business, but by invitation of one of the society leaders, and without doubt he will be entertained in a fitting manner by the smart set, or at least some of them. The negro is Joseph Loftin and his hosts are to be Mr. and Mrs. Pembroke Jones. Loftin is in charge of the Jones estate at Arleigh, N. C., and for several years has met there and arranged entertainments for some of the social leaders. Loftin will arrive here to-morrow and remain for the yacht races as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jones on board the steam yacht Narrada, after which he will go to Newport.

Physician and Druggists.

Ford & Sturgeon, a prominent drug firm at Rocky Hill Station, Ky., writes: "We were requested by Dr. G. B. Snigley to send for Herbine for the benefit of our customers. We ordered three dozen in December, and we are glad to say, Herbine has given such great satisfaction that we have duplicated this order three times, and to-day we gave your salesmen another order. We beg to say Dr. G. B. Snigley takes pleasure in recommending Herbine." 50c bottle at H. L. Tucker's Drug Store.

Turkey Bids That Russian Warships Be Withdrawn.

Constantinople, Aug. 22.—Tewfik Pasha, the Turkish Foreign Minister, yesterday visited the Russian Ambassador and notified him that the Turkish Government accepted all the Russian demands and begged that the Russian squadron be withdrawn from Turkish waters.

The news of the arrival of the Russian squadron is spreading, notwithstanding the continued suppression of all telegrams and announcements on the subject.

The general opinion of the Europeans here is that the time has arrived for a vigorous intervention and the abandonment of all semi-measures, which are regarded as the cause of the present rising.

According to the Turkish official reports the strongest positions of the insurgents are at Krushevo, Merihoro and Florina.

Contrary to previous reports, it is now stated officially that Krushevo is still occupied by the insurgents.

The headquarters of the revolutionists are in the Peristeri Mountains in the vicinity of Monastir.

Women and children are not molested by the insurgents, who have destroyed only fortified dwellings occupied by rich Turks. It is not denied that they kill all Bulgarians and Greeks found acting as Turkish spies, but the strictest orders have been issued not to interfere with women or children.

Twenty-one Were Injured.

Nevada, Mo., August 11.—The northbound Katy flyer was derailed seventeen miles north of Nevada at 11:30 o'clock last night. The wreck was caused by spreading rails. Two cars were splintered and three derailed. Twenty-one passengers were injured, three seriously. A special train was sent from here and the injured were taken to the company hospital at 6 o'clock this morning.

The Sultan Has Apologized.

Manila, Aug. 22.—The sultan of Deesen has appeared before Major R. H. Bullard with a large retinue and has made a full and complete apology for the insult to the United States flag, for which reparation was promptly demanded by Major Bullard, then in command. The sultan declared that his crazy son, since disinherited, was responsible for the outrage. The sultan of Bacalod is reported as reoffering his various camps and demanding a substantial indemnity from the United States on account of war losses before he will tender his submission.

Cured Paralysis.

W. S. Baily, P. O. True, Texas, writes: "My wife had been suffering five years with paralysis in her arm, when I was persuaded to use Ballard's Snow Liniment, which cured her all right. I have also used it for old sores, frost bites and skin eruptions. It does the work." 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottle at H. L. Tucker's Drug Store.
